TO-DAY'S BUDGET OF NEWS RECEIVED BY TELEGRAPH.

The Price of Meat Rising in New York—The United States Refusing to Accept Criminals—The Ninth National Bank of New York in Trouble.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The Times St. Louis special says—The price of meat has gone up and is still advancing. Packers, butchers and dealers say that they think it will continue to advance till about July 1st. At present the prices of dressed meats excepting pork range from 9½ to 12½ cents a pound at wholesale for first-class grade. Pork is beginning to take an upward turn. At retail choice steaks sell well at from 17½ to 20 cents a pound, while round steak is worth 12½ to 20 cents and roasts 15 and 22 cents. Mutton chops are hard to get at 17 cents to 25 cents. This is an average advance from six to seven cents since the first of the month. Representatives of Armour & Co., Nelson Morris and others say the advance is due to natural causes, mainly of the scarcity of good stock. Then the failure of the oat crop and the shortness of the corn crop and the minimum amount of hay for several years and other causes, and the removal of the cattle from the Cherokee strip is still another. The cattle they say were taken from the strip and put on the market at once. This took away one source of obtaining feeders of the spring market. Then on account of the short crops last year, the consequent high prices of grain, feeders could not afford to fatten stock and take the prices paid for it. The farmers did not have the feed and so put all surplus stock on the market at any price. This took away another and the remaining source of obtaining feeders. Another factor is the eastern demand, chiefly from New York and Philadelphia, for high-grade beef and mutton. This is a regular demand, and pays well for the stock to supply it. As long, however, as stock was plenty this demand did not much affect the prices here, but since the supply has become scarce, unless prices be paid here equal to those of eastern buyers the stock goes east.

Don't Want Criminals.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—An international question has sprung up between the United States and Germany through the action of the German officials in sending to this country an insane German criminal. The matter is one of importance, coming on the heels of the New Orleans troubles, and indicates an intention on the part of the U. S. Government to institute a more rigid inspection of immigrants. The case that gives rise to the action taken is that of Nikolaus Bauder, who recently arrived in New York. Bauder is 55 years old, and has no relatives or friends in this country. In 1864 he murdered a girl with whom he was in love, for which he was imprisoned and afterwards declared insane, and was confined in an asylum for 24 years. He was discharged a year ago and shipped to this country at the expense of the Government.

Another Bank in Trouble.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Rumors were afloat on Wall street yesterday morning of a defalcation in the Ninth National Bank. It was said that the surplus of $32,000 had entirely disappeared and that the discovery was made through the death of some one who had had a position of trust. A visit to the bank found the directors in session. Soon after bank examiner Kinburn arrived and was closeted with them. The directors were still in session at a late hour this evening and nothing official could be learned, but it is said that the loss was through the operations of J. T. Hill, the late president of the bank, who died about a month ago. It was alleged that the amount was about $400,000, but that the bank would not lose at all, being secured in part by real estate. It was reported that the solvency of the bank was in no way impaired. The bank's capital is $750,000.

The Bank is all Right.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Business was transacted as usual at the Ninth National Bank and the amount of the deposits are more than the average. H. H. Nazro, cashier of the bank, said to a United Press reporter: "There is nothing new this morning. The speculations of the late President Hill are covered by real estate owned by him, and there is no fear that the bank will lose anything at all."

Eight Miles Long.

PORT ANGELES, April 27.—An election was held Saturday to determine whether the boundaries of the city should be extended. The proposition received a handsome majority in the city and territory to be annexed. It was thought that owing to the large tract to be annexed it would not carry, and the result is a pleasant surprise. The limits will be about eight miles long and three and a half wide. The total assessment in the present city limits amounts to $1,275,000. The assessment of the new territory will bring it up to about $2,000,000.

The G. A. R. Veterans Celebrate.

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, April 29.—The G.A.R. is holding a celebration here. Nearly all the business houses are decorated, and an Italian decorated his fruit stand in honor of the event. He hung up an Italian flag over the American. Some veterans who were passing told him he would have to take it down. He refused, when they informed him that if he did not they would tear his stand to pieces. After that he reluctantly complied. There is still some hard feeling about the matter, and the mayor ordered all police on duty fearing a riot.

Smallpox on Vanderbilt's Yacht.

NEW YORK, April 28.—More smallpox is reported as broken out on W. K. Vanderbilt's steam yacht Alva. It appears that Dr. Smith, of the quarantine department, boarded the Alva yesterday and found one of her crew had a well developed case of the disease and gave orders that the patient be removed to North Brothers Island. The Alva was at anchor off Clifton. Residents of Staten Island think she should be quarantined in Lower bay.

FROM OTTAWA.

Meeting of Parliament—Peter White Elected Speaker.

OTTAWA, April 29.—The British Columbia members arrived here this morning and were present and subscribed to the oath in the Commons chambers, along with the great majority of the 215 members elected to the Dominion legislature. After being called to the Senate by the Usher of the Black Rod, and introduced by the deputy governor, Sir Wm. Ritchie, to return and elect a speaker, the members of the popular chamber did so, and on motion of Sir John, seconded by Sir Hector, Peter White was elected Speaker. Laurier twitted the Government for not following British practice, and appointing Ouimet the last Speaker, but he said that the loyalty of the Conservatives to British institutions was only seen during election times. If that could not be done then there was good precedent of appointing Deputy Speaker Wood to the position. However he did not object to the Government's choice, who was in every way an able and capable man.

Jack the Ripper.

NEW YORK, April 29.—When Inspector Byrnes was asked this afternoon if he had anything to say concerning the "Jack the Ripper" murder, he said nothing. A few moments later he received a dispatch from Jersey City saying an important arrest had just been made there in connection with the case and police officials there believe the man for whom he was looking was captured. The inspector left immediately for Jersey City. Three arrests were made by ward detectives this morning; one was discharged and the other two held. "Dublin Mary" was taken from a whisky place known as "Plug Hat" and held to-day as a witness. A later dispatch from Jersey City says: "The man arrested there is an Algerian sailor and the chief of police says there is no doubt but the man is the one wanted for the Jack the Ripper murder."

Another Strike Impending.

PITTSBURG, April 29.—There is every prospect of a strike by from six to seven thousand of the bituminous coal miners of the Pittsburg district. In face of the operators formally expressed determination to scale down the price of mining from May 1st, the miners intend to meet in convention Friday and demand an advance of ten cents. District Secretary Jas. Boyd, of the United Mine Workers, said yesterday that the men were ready to strike to press their point.

The California Poolroom Law.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28. — The habeas corpus case of George Tuttle, the bookmaker arrested at the time of the closing of the poolrooms, came up in the supreme court this morning on an appeal from the superior judge, who decided that the ordinance was valid. It was the original intention of Tuttle's attorney to make an extensive argument before the judges but it was finally decided to submit the case by briefs.

A Reforming Mayor.

CHICAGO, April 28.—Mayor Washburn's first official act on entering upon his duties, this morning, was to issue an order to the police department to close up every gambling house and pool room in Chicago.

Pugilist Bezinah is Dead.

CINCINNATI, April 28.—Louis Bezinah, the lightweight pugilist shot a month ago in a quarrel over a woman, died today.

A Terrible Disgrace.

LONDON, April 28.—The prosecution on a charge which had been made against Mr. C. A. Fyffe, the well known historian of Modern Europe, and a candidate of the Liberal party for election to the House of Commons, accusing him of having indecently assaulted a lad on a railway train, was adjourned in a somewhat tragic manner to-day. The court had been opened in due form, and a large number of prominent literary people and church dignitaries were present to testify to the blameless life and character of the defendant. Hardly had the proceedings been begun, however, before the court was notified that Mr. Fyffe had yesterday attempted suicide by cutting his throat, and was at the moment in a very critical condition. The court thereupon adjourned. The election committee of the Liberal party, upon learning of the affair at once revoked their original expression of confidence in Mr. Fyffe.

Toward Local Self Government.

LONDON, April 29.—The House of Commons to-day by a vote of 182 to 111 adopted a liberal motion reducing the number of taverns and giving the local authorities larger control over licenses with a Conservative amendment providing that publicans having licenses revoked or denied without fault on their part should be compensated.

Where Will It End?

HALIFAX, April 29.—A special from St. John's, N. F., says: Advices from St. Pierre bring intelligence that the French are in serious straits for want of bait and that they cannot carry on the bank fishery independent of supplies from the Newfoundland coast. Five dollars per barrel is freely offered for herring, and this naturally proves a strong temptation to the people of Fortune Bay. The energies of the bait protection service is taxed to its utmost to prevent smuggling. Violence has been resorted to in one or two cases, but the guilty parties have been quickly suppressed.

CHANCE FOR VICTORIA.

NORTHWEST FIREMEN WANT TO COME HERE THIS YEAR

To Hold Their Annual Tournament—An Offer That Should be Accepted Immediately—Victoria did not Have to bid for the Event.

Those citizens who have witnessed a firemens' tournament will read with pleasure the following letter received last night by Chief Deasy of the fire department:

Office of the Secretary of the Northwestern Firemen's Association,
Albany, Oregon, April 17, 1891.

Chief Engineer, Victoria Fire Department.

DEAR SIR,—Would your city like to have the next meeting of this association held there? Many of our boys have never visited B.C., and express a desire to do so. You understand that the expenses to the city are just whatever amounts you see fit to give as prizes in the tournament. As to the drawing card to the city, ask any of the boys who attended at Seattle or Tacoma. Confer with the firemen, and let me hear from you at your convenience.

Yours very respectfully,
C. W. WATTS, Secretary.

This is a chance that every citizen of Victoria should take advantage of as it would be one of the very best means obtainable to advertise the city abroad. There would be fifteen teams, of 15 men each, here from Oregon, Washington and British Columbia, each of which would bring a large contingent of friends and admirers with them. As a rule the cities have had to bid for the tournament but as will be seen by the letter Victoria has been offered the tournament, which every city in the Northwest is anxious to have, without even asking for it. The races would extend over three days and as they are held on one of the principal streets of the city the visitors would be kept in town and of course benefit the merchants and city generally. The tournament was held in Tacoma last year that city having outbid all the other cities by offering $3000 in prizes. The tournament would be worth ten times that amount to the city as crowds of visitors would be certain to come over. Victoria would only enter in the championship race so as to avoid any chance of the outside teams complaining of favoritism to the home team. It would have been a good idea to combine the tournament with the 24th of May celebration but it is too late now and the other teams, no doubt, would prefer to hold it some time in August, so as to give them lots of time for practice. Chief Deasy has gone into the matter heart and soul, and he and his boys should be encouraged in every way possible, as they will, each and every one, do their best to get the tournament, and make it a success if they do get it. A meeting will very likely be called shortly to devise ways and means.

The Gamewell Fire Alarm Company, the Gutta Percha Rubber Company and C. McElroy & Company of Toronto, all promised Chief Deasy that they would offer trophies if at any time a tournament should be held here, and as they are all big firms the prizes would be handsome ones and well worth competing for, which would be a great help.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.

Matters of Interest Going Forward in the Sporting World, Here and Elsewhere.

THE RING.

ST. LOUIS, April 27.—Frank Slavin, the well-known pugilist, had a long chat to-day with John L. Sullivan. This evening he said to a reporter Sullivan told him he was no longer in the ring; that he was bound by contract for two years that prevented his return to the ring, and furthermore, he liked his new profession better. Slavin acknowledges Sullivan the champion, and intends to go for the winner of the Jackson-Corbett fight. He and Sullivan parted the best of friends, and Slavin said a man who made a bluff about Sullivan would have to fight him first.

JOHN L. HAS RESIGNED.

ST. LOUIS, April 29.—Having accomplished his mission, Frank Slavin, accompanied by Dr. John Dougherty, of Philadelphia, left for New York last night. Slavin and his friend secreted themselves at a hotel during the day, Slavin not even registering. Just before boarding the train the Australian said: "I came here to arrange a fight with Sullivan. I was met fairly and squarely by him. We never met before, and I can say I was never received in a more manly and courageous manner. Our interview has its points of regret to me, but on the whole, I must be satisfied, for Sullivan's manner was such as to impress me with his sincerity."

"But is John L. going to fight again?"

"No."

"And why?"

"Sullivan is no longer in the ring. He declared so himself, and said he had retired, and said he was bound by contracts for two years that prevented his return to the ring in any event."

FITZSIMMONS DOES HIM.

CHICAGO, April 28.—Before a crowd of 3000 howling and yelling spectators in Battery D to-night, Bob Fitzsimmons, the conqueror of Jack Dempsey, exhibited his prowess by knocking out Abe Cougle, a local heavy-weight. He accomplished the feat with dispatch by means of a half-dozen terrific half-arm blows delivered with a viciousness that fully pleased the cheering crowd, and which explained in a measure Dempsey's defeat. Fitzsimmons showed himself a strong, quick hitter, but his short work with Cougle spoiled the show, for it cut off all opportunity for the crowd to judge between the two middle-weights who are booked for a battle for championship honors and a big purse in July, as Cougle refused to go on with Hall for the windup, after his experience with Fitzsimmons.

Patsey Fallon was master of ceremonies. After exhibitions by local talent, Jim Hall and Billy Woods, the Colorado heavy-weight, appeared in a two-round contest. Hall showed himself to be a very clever man. He is a handsomer fighter than either Burke or Mitchell, and delivers the keenest kind of blows. He received great applause for his clever work. Fitzsimmons and Cougle appeared next. Bob's awkward "kangaroo" figure, and his position, astonished the expectant 3000. Cougle started in with a will, and was, through his superior weight, at Fitzsimmons in a business-like manner, while the New Zealander was taking things easy. Cougle planted a right-hander on a sore on Bob's mouth, and the latter went to his corner bleeding profusely. The crowd sighted the claret, and yelled: "Do him, Abe!" "You have got Dempsey now!" and made other remarks that Fitzsimmons did not relish.

The champion began the second round lively, and with his famous reach kept Cougle away and played freely on his head with both hands. Cougle rushed, and Dempsey's conqueror evidently lost his temper, for he swung his left on his opponent's right jaw, repeated the tap on the left, and the heavy-weight went reeling across the ring and down in his corner. He came up partially dazed, and the slim man from New Zealand again closed on him. He showered six short punches on Cougle's jaws and neck, and the South Water street gladiator collapsed in a heap. A squad of police climbed over the ropes, but time was up before Cougle. He was led to his corner and fanned into consciousness. Fitzsimmons was afraid of the police, for he left the ring in a hurry and made his way to his quarters over the heads of the crowd.

Many criticized Fitzsimmons for worsting his opponent, and claim that he did it deliberately and without provocation, but the fighter's friends claimed that, Cougle crossed the champion with the intention of making a monkey of him. Cougle left the hall as soon as he could get into his clothes, and with a gang of admirers laid in wait for Fitzsimmons outside the hall. The crowd was dispersed by Police Captain Fitzpatrick and Lieutenant Ross, who warned Cougle and his crowd not to attempt to make trouble. The latter started away, however, threatening his late opponent.

THE DUNCE KNOCKS HIM OUT.

NEW YORK, April 29.—A cable dispatch from London to the Police Gazette, says that Dunce Wallace knocked out George Camp in 18 rounds last night in a glove fight for £500.

OUR OTTAWA LETTER.

BUSY PREPARING FOR THE MEETING OF PARLIAMENT.

A Batch of Protests Entered Against the Return of Members—Ministers Threatened With Disqualification—Other General Topics.

From Our Own Correspondent.]

OTTAWA, April 20.—In a little more than a week parliament will be in session. The people of Ottawa have been anxiously looking forward for the session and many of them have contracted obligations which cannot be paid until the House meets on Parliament Hill. Others have gone financially under while waiting for the arrival of the Dominion legislators. Just how much the loss was to the capital of not having a winter session cannot be well estimated, but the money expended in the city during the sitting of the Dominion legislature is not any less than $1500 per day. This is a considerable item. Boarding house keepers, hotels and dry goods stores suffered the most, while all were more or less affected. Had the session come round in its regular course, and had a dissolution not intervened it would have lasted full five months, while the approaching one is not likely to run more than about three months. The first session of the last parliament expired after about nine weeks' work, but the Opposition was weak—once the whole Nationalist faction turned over in a body to the Tory party—and had little heart to fight the Government, even if there were justification to do so. Now it is quite different, with Old Canada at the back of the Liberal party, as well as an immensely large popular vote, and only a majority of noses against them of something like 20 in round figures. The programme, too, which the Opposition has mapped out for itself, and which places Unrestricted Reciprocity as the first number—which the Government is even compelled to dicker with—is an excellent one and holds a leading place in the estimation of the people.

CONSIDERING THE ESTIMATES.

The Government is daily holding sittings of the cabinet for the purpose of considering the estimates. An effort will be made to present them to the House as soon as possible, with a view of shortening the sitting of Parliament. The Finance Minister also is endeavoring to show something like economy, but this will only appear on the surface, since any curtailment in the proposed expenditure will afterwards be made up by a liberal use of Governor-General's warrants, a principle which is right enough in itself for unforeseen obligations, but one which has been abused by the present Government in a most outrageous manner.

THE PROTESTS.

The season for protests has set in, and when the list of election cases which have been put in the courts have been decided, it will be seen what the majority of the Government is. The seats of Sir John Macdonald, Sir Hector Langevin, Sir Adolphe Caron, Sir John Thompson and Hon. Geo. E. Foster have all been protested, and in some instances the disqualification of the ministers is asked for. At Oogoode Hall yesterday a large batch of protests was entered. In less than 20 minutes the law officers of that institution took in about $50,000, each petition carrying with it $1,000 in cash. Among those protested were:

Halton—D. Henderson, Conservative.
South Leeds—Geo. Taylor, Conservative.
Kingston—Sir John Macdonald.
South Victoria—Jas. Fairhaven, Conservative.
Peel—Joseph Featherston, Reformer.
London—C. S. Hyman, Reformer.
East Hastings—Samuel Burdette, Reformer.
Prescott—J. Pronex, Reformer.
North York—W. Mulock, Reformer.
North York—Cross petition against W. Pegg, Conservative.
Peel—Cross petition against W. A. McCulla, Conservative.
North Victoria—J. A. Bannon, Reformer.
South Perth—James Trow, Reformer.
North Waterloo—J. E. Bowman, Reformer.
East Bruce—R. Truax, Reformer.
East Elgin—A. B. Ingram, Conservative.
East Elgin—J. H. Wilson, Reformer.
Kent—Archibald Campbell, Reformer.
South Waltera—Thomas Walters, Reformer.

As already stated these were all presented in one day and the usual charges of bribery and corruption alleged. Besides these a number of protests were filed sometime ago, such as North Middlesex, where the Conservative had only a majority of one; Wentworth, where Carpentar, Conservative, had only a majority of two, according to the returning officer's decision, but the Reformers claim their man elected by three; North Bruce, where McNeil, Conservative, had a small majority; East York, where Hon. Alex. McKenzie had a majority of about sixty, and several other places. Turning to Quebec, and protests have been filed in every constituency carried by the ministerial candidates. As these seats were lost to the Liberals through over confidence, their main forces being directed against Tory strongholds, which were captured by Mr. Laurier, the chances are that he will be able to win them back. At all events the election courts will be busy for sometime.

M'GREEVY TRIAL POSTPONED.

The Tarte-McGreevy trial does not come up in the Quebec criminal courts, so that in this way the matter will have to be thrashed out in Parliament.

FIRM TO THE COMBINES.

Some time ago Mr. Fred Nicholls, Secretary of the Manufacturers' Association, and a prominent figure during election campaigns, sent a letter to the different manufacturers in Ontario included in the association, asking them what class of goods they could afford to place on the free list without any injury to their business. In a few cases replies were sent him by manufactures who declared for unrestricted reciprocity, but the vast majority of these manufacturers—I mean those connected with this association—which means those who meet in the red parlor and dictated the policy of the Government—held a meeting and passed resolutions declaring against reciprocity. This settles the matter as far as Sir John Macdonald is concerned, so that there need be no more junketing trips to Washington, at a heavy cost to the country, with a view of humbugging the people.

THE NEW SPEAKER.

Mr. Peter White is here almost daily making arrangements for the session, but he was somewhat astonished to find that all the appointments of pages and extra officials were made by his predecessor, Col. Oulmet. The elevation of Mr. White to the Speakership means that his chances of a porfolio are gone. Like Mr. Kirkpatrick and others he will have to step again on to the floor of the House as a private member, if his constituency so desire it, which is doubtful. Those lumbermen who pressed his entrance to the cabinet are chagrined over his appointment as Speaker, as he would have been of very much more service to them on the floor of the chamber than in the Speaker's chair, where he cannot even aid them with his vote. That is how Sir John generally does things and his followers too frequently applaud him for the successful and cunning way he fooled, (to use a vulgarism), them. SLABTOWN.

A LITTLE BIT OF HISTORY.

How the Parliament Buildings Were Burned 42 Years Ago by the Tories.

MONTREAL, April 24.—Fred Perry, who was leader of the mob that burned the Parliament buildings in this city forty-two years ago this evening, and who has been accused of having more to do with that matter than any other man, publishes and article here to-day in which he shows that the burning of the Parliament house was in no way premeditated by the mob, but that the disaster was brought about in a most accidental manner. Ferry relates that he noticed the clock ticking away on the wall, and thinking the same a splendid mark, a red brick was dispatched upon its mission of destruction. Instead of striking the the ticker, the brickbat came in contact with a bronze chandelier, smashing the same, and the gas coming into contact with the ceiling, flames were in a few moments bursting from all parts of the building.

Charges Against a Railway President.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The Times prints the following: A letter containing a very serious accusation against Wm. L. Breyfogle, has been placed in the hands of General Thomas, president of the Louisville, New Albany & Chicago Railway. Mr. Breyfogle was president of the road until a few weeks ago when his administration was turned out by the Thomas-Greenough syndicate. In the re-organization Mr. Breyfogle was made assistant to the president. The letter now in President Thomas' hands was written by Henry Crawford, at one time connected with the law department of the road. He was deposed by Mr. Breyfogle. He makes specific charges against the ex-president, most of them relating to financial irregularities and some of them of a character that should lead to the criminal prosecution of the accuser. General Thomas proposes to lay the matter before Mr. Breyfogle and institute an investigation at once. Mr. Breyfogle is a partner in a banking firm in Louisville, Ky. He is now in the west. Mr. Crawford was in Wall street yesterday but declined to say anything.

What a Change

Is wrought in people who suffer from rheumatism when they take Hood's Sarsaparilla. The acidity of the blood, which causes the disease, is neutralized, the blood is purified and vitalized, the aching joints and limbs rest easily and quietly, and a feeling of serene health is imparted. Hood's Sarsaparilla has accomplished wonders for thousands subject to rheumatism. Try it yourself.

Delicious Cake and Pastry, Light Flaky Biscuit, Griddle Cakes Palatable and Wholesome.

No other baking powder does such work.

Threatening to Kill.

This serious offence might well be charged against that prevalent disease Constipation, which threatens to destroy many valuable lives if not stopped. It arises from wrong action of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels, and causes Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Bad Blood, Boils, Pimples, Rashes, Eruptions, Sores and Foul Tumors. It can only be cured by the prompt use of the right remedy, Burdock Blood Bitters, which never fails to cure even the most obstinate cases and is a specific for all diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels and Blood. Thousands testify. Read and learn.

MRS. G. McKAY.

Cases in Point.

Sure to Cure.

DEAR SIRS,—I suffered with constipation and headache, and having taken a bottle of B.B.B. on trial, found it doing so much good that I sent for several more and it proved a sure cure. I use it in my family and feel safe in recommending it to my friends.

MRS. GORDON McKAY,
Jordan Falls, N. S.

A Prompt Effect.

DEAR SIRS,—I was very bad with costiveness and one bottle of your Burdock Blood Bitters cured me. I would not be without it.

IRONCLADS BLOWN UP.

o Chilian Insurgent Boats Destroyed—One the Famous Huascar.

ONDON, April 28.—A dispatch to the ues from Valparaiso says: The casu ies on the Government boats at the tle of Caldera was one killed and wounded. On the Aconcagua 150 re killed. Telegrams received in ris from the insurgent forces confirm foregoing, and say the engagement ted 90 minutes. The Aconcagua was 70 times.

ARIS, April 28—The Congress party Chili telegraphs that the loss of their rships will not impede military opeions, and that their army continues march south. The insurgents have upied Canigal and Caldera, and are rching on Cepiapo. The warship rence, which until recently was al to President Balmaceda, has now e over to the insurgents. It is said president is very much afraid of g poisoned. His mother prepares his meals.

EW YORK, April 28.—The Chilian ation and fleet have cabled advices arding a naval battle, stating that the 22nd the Government cruisers ch and Condell attacked in the Bay Caldera the ironclads Blanca Encal- and Huascar and destroyed them h Whitehead torpedoes. The attack- cruisers suffered no damage, and urned to Valparaiso, where they are paring to cruise after the remaining el of the revolting squadron. This considered the deathblow of the ellion.

THE U. S. ARMY DISGRACED.

Lynching by Soldiers at Walla Walla—Searching Investigation.

ALLA WALLA, April 27.—Inspector- eral S. S. Sumner is in the city for purpose of investigating the action he soldiers of the fourth cavalry in ching A. J. Hunt Friday night for oting Private Miller, of D troop. uner called on Prosecuting Attorney ndford and Superior Judge Upton, informed them that he had come to roughly investigate the trouble, and hed to assure them that it would be whitewash, but a rigid investigation. ing the day he has been investigat- and interviewing many citizens to an idea of the prevailing sentiment. states that he will remain until the d jury has completed its labors, will be prepared to assist them in r investigations. Attorney Bland- to-day received a reply to his dis- h to the secretary of war from that ial announcing that orders for a t investigation have been given.

t 4.15 this afternoon Private E. Mil- who was shot by Hunt, died after g totally paralyzed from the breast n for four days. At the request of military authorities Coroner Bla- decided to hold an inquest over the ains in the morning.

parade this evening the command- officer had a telegram read from eral Ruger, commanding the ion of the Pacific, expressing a w of the grief of President Harrison e act of the soldiers, and declaring necessity of better conduct in the re and a full explanation of the nt crime.

ASHINGTON, April 28.—The affair alla Walla and the fact that the ident has interested himself in the er, naturally arouses much com- t at the war department. Secretary tor is a man of determination, and ill spare no effort or trouble to the offenders to justice. It is be- l that he will have an efficient er in the person of Gen. Ruger, hose department the offense was mitted, and lawbreakers will speed- brought to trial before a court ial.

retary Proctor has replied to ecuting Attorney Blandford, of a Walla, deeply regretting the asness of the soldiers and stating a searching inquiry will be at once uted.

ut was a gambler, and shot a sol- named Miller, in a low saloon. oldiers then attempted to lynch , and at the second trial were suc- ul. About fifty of them, disguised, an assault upon the prison, and, ring the prisoner, fired about y shots into his body. There was ublic sympathy for Hunt, and it ltogether probable that he would been convicted and sentenced by w, had he been brought to trial.

Extensive Fire.

FFALO, April 29.—Case & Co's IcCutcheon's tin, copper and sheet iron factories, Ohio street, near Washington, were damaged by fire at 8 o'clock this morning to the extent of $35,000; covered by insurance.

CANADIAN NEWS.

Late Telegrams from the Eastern Canadian Cities.

Notice is given in the Canada Gazette that the brewers' license issued to Geo. A. Brain, in Winnipeg division, has been forfeited, he having neglected to render returns required by the Inland Revenue Act for the month of March.

The Postoffice Savings Bank account for the month of March last, shows at the credit of the depositors accounts, $21,228,391.

Application has been made for the incorporation of "Ontario and Quebec Navigation Co."

James H. Dunlop & Co., wholesale grocers and flour merchants, have offered 40 cents on the dollar. The liabilities are $55,000, and it is alleged the assets, including the book debts, are $40,000.

The municipal committee of the legislative committee of the House of Assembly has passed a resolution giving police commissioners and town councils the power to regulate and suppress all bands but those of military.

Joncas, about whose politics there is so much doubt, is in Ottawa for the session, defines them thus: "I have been an Independent Conservative, but don't be surprised to see me vote against the Government one of these days." Both sides claim him so far.

Hornebrooke, aged 22, brakeman on the Grand Trunk, was struck by an overhead bridge near Kingston yesterday and hurled from the roof of a car to the ground. Death was instantaneous.

TARTE TALKS.

J. Israel Tarte, of McGreevy-Langevin scandal fame, speaking to an Ottawa correspondent said that he had made no effort to delay his trial for libel before Quebec courts, but as parliament meets this week he thought better it should be tried there, where all interested could be present. "Their object," he continued, "in trying us before the courts was to limit the evidence to suit themselves. This is not a question between McGreevy and myself. What the country is interested in knowing is whether members of the House can be allowed to have communication with public tenders and figures and to give them out to friendly contractors either to amend their tenders or buy out other tenderers. If I don't prove in the most conclusive way that the public chest has been robbed of hundreds of thousands of dollars, of course I will lose my seat and go disgraced into private life, because I have full faith in documents in my possession."

A Fitting Celebration.

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 29.—The Confederate Survivors Association of Augusta, gave an ovation to Gen. Wade Hampton and the survivors of his old brigade. They met after a separation of 26 years. The First North Carolina, the South Carolina Cavalry and Phillips Legion, the Jeff Legion, the Cobb Legion, composed the brigade. Addresses were delivered by Gens. Hampton, Wheeler, Butler, Young, Major Basker and Major Butler, Commandant of the United States arsenal. The memorial address was delivered by pleasant A. Stovedall, editor of the Augusta Chronicle. All business was suspended and the day was observed as a holiday.

THE CHINA STEAMER QUESTION.

The "fly in the ointment" of the new Japan steamers, like that of the old line, is, that the outer wharf does not extend far enough out to sea. Had the wharf been a mile longer the Empress need not have come to anchor. She could have tied up at the wharf, and the civic deputation could have been driven to her in hacks. But for all that the Empress was anchored instead of docked, she was not quite "hull down," and the civic deputation managed to board her without experiencing sea sickness. The Board of Trade, and in fact all of those who are concerned in Victoria's commercial interests, want to make note of that. If it is possible for a Japan steamer to get so close to Victoria that the Board of Trade can reach her without experiencing the agonies of mal-de-mer, it is sufficient. The availability of Victoria as a point of touch for Japan steamers is settled for all time, and Mr. VAN HORNE should proceed forthwith to haul in his horns.

Did the citizens of Victoria really think that the Empress would tie up at the outer wharf? The Empress draws 25 feet or thereabouts. At low tide the depth of water at the outer wharf is 21 feet. High tide increases the depth to, say 28½ feet. High tide does not happen every day, and even if it did, the careful master of a ship drawing 25 feet is averse to tying up his vessel at a wharf where there would be less than three feet of water under her. An isolated rock projecting from the bottom an odd foot or so would knock a hole in her. Steamers the size of the Empress steer badly in shallow water. Besides, yesterday morning, granting that there was water enough to safely dock the ship, she could not remain at the dock long, as the tide was going out.

This is the situation in a nutshell, and so long as the status quo is persisted in, it is not worth while to give currency to the oft-repeated remark: "That the policy of the Canadian Pacific is inimical to Victoria." In the meantime, what is going to be done about it? Are things to remain as they are? Are the Empresses in the future, as was the case with the Batavia and her sister ships in the past, simply to recognize Victoria as they pass in and out by slowing down to let off or on a pilot? It should seem so. We hear of no effort being about to be made whereby this port can be made available as an actual point of touch for ships the size of the Empress of India. Is it worth anything to Victoria that the Japan steamers should make her a port of call? If not, then, of course, the status quo is all right. But if, commercially speaking, it is desirable that the Japan steamers should stop here, Victoria must needs go into the wharf extension and dredging business immediately. The day of small steamers, if not passed, is passing.

LOCKOUTS AND STRIKES.

Statistics of lockouts and strikes show that from 1881 to 1886 there occurred in the United States 2214 lockouts. Of these 564 were successful, 1339 failed, the remainder were partially successful. Direct loss to employers, $3,462,261. Loss to men affected, $8,157,717. Pending settlement of these contests $1,106,038 were contributed, while at the conclusion of the trouble the working force was reduced by the refusal of the employers to take back 4798 persons. The number of persons locked out was 175,270, of whom 52,958 were women and girls.

On the other side during the same interval there were 22,304 strikes, of which 18,342 were ordered by labor organizations. Of these strikes 10,875 were successful, 8910 failed, the rest were partial failures. Loss against the strikers $51,814,723. Loss against employers $30,701,522. The strikers were assisted in the amount of $3,324,557, and in the end their were 25,788 men whom the employers refused to take back.

SOLDIERS AS LYNCHERS.

There is a diversity of opinion about the lynching of the Italian murderers in New Orleans; there can be but one sentiment in respect to the lynching of HUNT at Walla Walla by United States soldiers. HUNT, a gambler, quarrelled in a low saloon with a soldier named MILLER, and in the row that ensued the latter was fatally shot. The murderer was arrested and held for trial. A body of soldiers, numbering fifty or more, overpowered the guard, seized the prisoner, and without trial, and in defiance of the law they were sworn to support, riddled the cowering wretch's body with bullets. The popular tragedy at New Orleans was the result of a failure in the law. There the victims of an outraged sense of justice had conspired to subvert law and order by murdering those whose duty it was to suppress crime by prosecuting criminals. At Walla Walla there had been no trial. The lynchers wore the uniform of the United States Government. They were, ostensibly, the "defenders of the constitution," which in most civilized countries provides for fair and impartial trial by jury of all persons charged with capital offences. It is impossible to imagine circumstances under which a resort to mob law by soldiers would be justifiable. In the Walla Walla case the United States army has been disgraced, and for the good name of the service the guilty parties must be punished.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Canadian barley is bringing 88 cents per bushel in Buffalo. At Canadian ports the figure is 55 cents. Who pays the duty?

The Ontario Government has been waited upon by a strong deputation of business men of Toronto, who asked that the law be so changed as to provide for the assessment of their incomes instead of their personal properties. The Government promised to give the matter most serious consideration.

By a full computation of the vote in the Dominion elections, it is found that a clear majority of the people of Ontario and Quebec, embracing four-fifths of the wealth and population of Canada, voted against the present Government and its policy of high taxation and extravagance. The N.P., as Principal GRANT asserts, is doomed.

Readers of Rudyard Kipling's "In Black and White" sketches will appreciate the meaning of the telegram from Benares, telling that after the demonstrations had developed into a riot, and the authorities had called on volunteers to assist in suppressing it, the feeling was quieter. No bare-footed mob of Hindoos can stand before the English man with his boots on.

Gen. HERBERT writes his letters to the French officers in Quebec in French. What's getting to be the matter with the English language, or is it that a sort of a de-nationalizing process is going on in Canada? It is anamalous that army orders in French should be given under the orders of the English flag. Perhaps the French cannot get on to "English as she is spoke."

A few weeks ago Messrs. TUPPER et al went to Washington in quest of limited reciprocity, and had they secured it the effect would have been to reduce the revenue. Palpably true as this is, Mr. FOSTER replies to the demand that the duty on sugar be reduced, that it is impossible as a valuable source of revenue would be lost to the Dominion. There is a degree of insincerity manifested by some of our Tory politicians in the matter of reciprocity which compels the belief that they are either fools or knaves.

Montreal Gazette: Quebec's press has become somewhat excited over a rebuke Major-General HERBERT is reported to have administered to a noncommissioned officer who used political influence to get things fixed comfortably for him in his quarters. Outsiders are more likely to get excited over the cause that made the rebuke necessary. A soldier with a political pull is something the country does not want to make the acquaintance of. Is the Gazette able to put its finger on an officer who has not a "political pull?"

In the report of the Dominion Minister of Public Works for last year, just issued, it is shown that since the commencement in 1859 of the Ottawa public buildings to date there has been expended for construction and improvements the sum of $5,027,447. A new and interesting table gives the amounts expended by the Government on the construction and improvement of the public works of Canada since their commencement to June 30 last: Railways, $137,376,258; canals, $52,863,889; public buildings, $18,696,539; harbors and breakwaters, $11,435,000; rivers, $1,926,000; dredges, $671,000; slides and booms, $1,841,970; roads and bridges, $1,816,190; telegraph lines, $708,372; lighthouses, $3,141,905; Dominion steamers, $739,033; monuments, $15,405; Ottawa city park, $12,511; Ottawa Cartier Square, $2597; grand total, $231,177,231.

NANAIMO NEWS.

The Wellington Assault Case—Bound Over to Appear When Wanted.

NANAIMO, April 29.—The adjourned case against Robert Slater, for an alleged assault on Charles Root, was again brought before Judge Harrison yesterday.

Mr. H McAdie, was the first witness called, and deposed meeting two men on the Wellington road on April 12, last; they appeared to have been quarrelling; heard one of them say "let me go."

W. Kilpatrick, stated he saw Slater on the Wellington road on Sunday, April 12, but did not see Root on that day; Slater was wriking towards the Quarter Way House; there was another man with him who is not present in court. The last witness was the principal witness the prosecution depended upon, but failed to make the case stronger against the defendant. Henry Ellis next gave evidence but, his statements clearly showed that he knew nothing of the occurrence until informed of it by Constable Stephenson on the night of the 12th. He served the prosecutor with a drink on that day, and saw him depart, but saw or heard nothing of any trouble occurring until Constable Stephenson made his appearance in the evening. Charles Root was re-called to identify Slater, who he positively asserted was one of the men who assaulted him. He was one of the men who chased me through the orchard and caught me by the Comox road. He was one of the parties who kicked me one man said to him (Slater) "Bob don't kick him in the face."

This closed the case, the defendant refusing to put any questions. The defendant was bound over in bonds $100 and two sureties of $500 each to appear when called upon.

LITTLE HAPPENINGS.

A valuable horse belonging to Mr. R. H. Rowe, was partly gutted in the bush on Monday evening.

The steamer Cutch took quite a number of passengers across to Vancouver this morning at reduced rates.

The "Black Dude" minstrels had an excellent practice last night in St. Paul's Institute Hall.

Mr. H Stewart has been appointed mail clerk on the E. & N. Railroad on the Nanaimo end.

Across the Straits.

Dr. R. F. Verrinder returned last evening from a trip across the Sound having visited Ports Townsend, Angeles, Crescent and Clallum Bay. At the latter place he reports a progressive community. Clallum Bay is located about 18 miles from Cape Flattery, and is an excellent harbor both for shelter from storms and secure anchorage. A company of San Francisco and Portland capitalists have put in a plant for the manufacture of hemlock bark tanning extract at a cost of eighty to one hundred thousand dollars. The mill has a capacity for using 20 to 30 cords of bark per day and employs 250 to 300 men during the summer season. The land surrounding the bay is heavily timbered, but the soil when cleared is susceptible of the highest state of agriculture. In addition to the Extract Company's Hotel, J. F. Thaggert has recently erected a new hotel. It has been known for the past twenty years that coal croppings existed in this vicinity and could be found on nearly every section of land surrounding the bay. Prompted by this several mining experts are at work, and some unmistakable seams have been discovered. The doctor brought over a sample of coal taken from ore of these belts. In view of the promising future of this place the doctor completed the purchase of a piece of property, which is the finest in the bay; it has been surveyed and platted as the original townsite of Clallam; the amount of the purchace money being $16,000. In addition to the three stores now in operation, several new supply and provision stores and a saw mill are to be erected on the townsite. A new and commodious boat will soon be placed on the route that will amply supply the demands of the increasing emmigration to this section. Judging from the present signs the doctor predicts a wonderful future for the rapidly growing town of Clallum.

We have special lines of worsted tweeds, blue and black cheviots for gentlemens' suits and will make them up to suit the customer. Warranted to fit and good first-class trimmings. McCallum & Woods, Turner block, corner Douglas and View streets.

Regatta Committee To-Night.

The regatta committee in connection with the Queen's Birthday celebration will meet this evening at the City Hall.

A Bargain.

Six and a half acres suitable for plotting and situated near Oak Bay avenue, to be sold cheap. Morrow, Holland & Co., 60 Government street.

The Presidential Visit.

The Union Pacific Railway are giving an excursion rate of a single fare for the round trip to Seattle and Tacoma on the occasion of the President's visit.

Still Considering Plans.

The building committee of Christ Church Cathedral have done nothing definite yet with regard to the new church. Plans are still under consideration.

Gillespie vs. Black.

The jury in this case, the circumstances of which were published yesterday, have found a verdict for the plaintiff Gillespie, the question of costs being reserved.

She'll be Missed.

Clancy's Rosie C, the neat little mare who was such a favorite at the fall meeting of the Victoria jockey club will not run at this meeting, her entry having been received too late.

They Will Join In.

Several members of the Vancouver Boating Club have expressed their willingness to join in the forthcoming celebrations, and it is likely that the club will join in as soon as the programme is ready.

For the South.

The passengers by the Walla Walla from this port to San Francisco this morning were: Geo. N. Wheaton, Thos. Spencer and wife, Rev. A. Crosby, Miss Alexandria, J. Talbot-Power and wife, and several steerage.

Excursion Rates.

For the Presidential Reception at Tacoma and Seattle, May 6th, the Union Pacific Railway will make rates of one fare for the round trip. Tickets may be purchased on May 5th and 6th, and will be good to return until May 8th.

Indian School Inspection.

A general public inspection of the Indian school in connection with the Coqualettza Home will be held on the 11th of May next, when the Rev. Dr. Sutherland, general secretary of the Methodist Missionary Society, is expected to be present.

How it Happened.

Stewart, the bluejacket who was found on the trestle work near the canteen the other evening, is improving rapidly at the naval hospital. He remembers very little, but says he came out of the canteen gate and had just climbed on to the trestle when the car struck him.

Natural History Society.

Now that the winter series of meetings is closed, the Natural History Society will make their summer indoor gatherings monthly events. The dredging expeditions will, however, be resumed. That which took place last Saturday resulted in the finding of some rare specimens.

Employees and Employers Agree.

At a meeting of the Tinners, Sheet Iron and Cornice Workers' Union, held last evening, a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to those firms that have acceded to nine hours a day. Some of the cornice manufacturers have agreed to a Saturday half holiday and the others are expected to fall in line.

Police Court Doings.

There were just four cases in the city police court this morning. One drunk, fined $5. A man charged with begging, remanded until to-morrow. A Chinaman charged with an infraction of the fire by-law, and McGuire charged with stealing a bottle of oil from S. Clay. The latter case was more extended than the others, several witnesses being called. His honor decided that the man was guilty and therefore sent him to jail for two months.

Tourist Spoons and Opera Glasses.

Mr. A. A. Clayton, of the Diamond place, Government street, has now completed and ready for inspection, a large stock of tourist spoons, suitable for souvenirs of Victoria. In the bowls of the spoons are etched scenes of the Gorge, Dunsmuir Castle, Mount Baker, and other pictures of Victoria scenery. He has also just received a consignment of beautiful opera glasses, in pearl and Russia leather, which are pronounced the finest ever imported to this city.

Deserted.

One of the men belonging to the navy deserted on Sunday last, while on the way to the ship after attending divine service. The man was released from gaol last week after serving a term for an offence committed on board one of the warships. It is believed that the deserter took to the woods and was met by two gaol birds whose time also expired a few days ago. The trio, it is supposed, crossed the Straits in a small boat.

A Gifted Speaker.

Hon. George R. Wendling, the most powerful orator in America, will close the star course of entertainments at the Victoria Theatre on Friday night, with a lecture on Voltaire. This is one of Mr. Wendling's best subjects, and having the gift of being a good speaker, and also being well acquainted with the subject, he will make the lecture an instructive one. A large number of seats have already been engaged, at Lombard's Music Store, where the box plan is now open.

A Long Drive.

To-morrow His Lordship Bishop Lemmens and Mr. Macaulay expect to set out for an all road drive to Chemainus. They will most probably spend two days on the road. The object of their visit to Chemainus is to select a church site on which to erect a building for the mission in which Rev. Father Van Nevel is engaged. There is a large percentage of Roman Catholics among the mill hands and other residents, and there is no church in which they can attend the services of their religion. It is the mill company, with which Mr. Macaulay is connected, who are giving the ground for the building.

Congratulations by Wire.

The white streamers were flying over the engine houses to-day, Mr. George Leddingham, a member of the department, having been married in Hamilton, Ont., to Miss Cox. The fire boys sent congratulations by wire.

At Their Disposal.

The steamer City of Seattle has been placed at the disposal of the Presidential party during their stay on the Sound by the Puget Sound & Alaska S. S. Company. The Seattle will convey the party from Tacoma to Seattle and return.

To Celebrate Their Anniversary.

Monday next, the 3rd anniversary of the organization of Seghers Council, will be celebrated by a grand banquet to be given by the members at the New York Hotel. A number of invitations have been issued and of course a good time will be had.

Should Have Badges.

The members of the fire department should be supplied with badges, so as to do away with the inconvenience caused by police officers not knowing the firemen. At the fire on Sunday night a prominent member of the department was rather roughly handled by one of the new officers for simply doing his duty.

Chilliwack Progress.

The Chilliwack Progress is the new name of a newspaper, the second number of which has reached us. The publisher is Mr. W. T. Jackman. The Progress deserves to prosper, and we hope it will. We observe that the editor has changed the spelling from Chilliwhack to Chilliwack. Probably Mr. Jackman is a cockney and drops his h's because he can't help himself.

She Had a Rough Trip.

The steamer Mascotte, Captain McCoskrie, arrived from Tacoma this morning with the two winding drums for the Union Mines Company. Capt. McCoskrie said the people over the Sound admit that they have not a steamer that could have taken the drums aboard, they weighing 18 tons each and being 10 feet 6 inches in diameter and 12 feet long. The Mascotte had a very rough trip across the straits but behaved splendidly with her heavy and unhandy load. She left for Comox at noon to-day. Capt. McCoskrie speaks in the highest terms of the treatment he received at the hands of the U. S. customs officials.

Capt. Troupe in Town.

Capt. J. W. Troupe, commodore of the Union Pacific Railway Company's fleet, arrived in the city last evening. He says the steamer Victorian is now beginning to look ship-shape and that she will be in Victoria harbor not later than June 15th. She had steam up the other day and it is expected that the engines will be accepted by the company next week. The captain is very proud of the new boat as he considers that nothing on the Sound will compare with her. When she arrives here, the Board of Trade and other prominent citizens will be invited to take a trip to some city on her.

Arrived at Esquimalt.

H.M.S. Pheasant arrived at Esquimalt this morning, four days from San Francisco, having had a very pleasant trip up. She was commissioned at Davenport, October 30, 1888, for service on the Pacific station. She is a first-class gunboat of six guns, 755 tons and 1200 horse power. The following are the officers:

Lieutenant and Commander, T. Hadley; lieutenant, Leonard C. Lister; naval lieutenant, Francis W. Melville; surgeon, Michael O'Brien, M.D.; engineer, Frank R. Shettaford; assistant paymaster (in charge), James E. V. Morton; gunner, Thomas Harding.

Fred Archer's Recital To-Night.

The following is the programme for Frederic Archer's recital at the St. Andrew's Church to-night:

PART I.

Fantasia in F	Mozart
Larghetto ..... 2nd Symphony	Beethoven
a Cantilena	Grison
b Funeral March of a Marionette	Gounod
Air and Variations	Rode
Overture ..... La Bayadere	Auber

PART II.

Prelude and Fugue in D major	J. S. Bach
The Harmonious Blacksmith	Handel
a Canzonetta	Mendelssohn
b March ..... Le Prophete	Meyerbeer
Allegro con Moto, Quintett in A (Repeated by special request.)	Mendelssohn
Overture ..... Maritana	W. V. Wallace

The Cases Entirely Different.

A great many people in the city have been made to believe that the tug Pilot, which left for the Sound last evening with the ship Favonius in tow, would be fined the same as the Lorne. If Collector Bradshaw's interpretation of the law is correct this cannot be so, as he distinctly said that if the Oriental, the boat that the Lorne towed to Tacoma, had come from a foreign port the Lorne would be justified in towing her. The difference in the two cases is very clear. The Oriental was from one American port for another. The Favonius is from a foreign port for an American port besides which she stopped in Royal Roads for several hours.

Little Things Speak.

"What a little thing I am! It is hardly possible to realize the fact that my usefulness extends from ocean to ocean; that I am always a welcome visitor to every home where I am used to give new life, new usefulness, and fresh, lasting looks to what was once cast away as worthless. I am a life preserver, a renovator, a messenger of joy and pleasure; and I daily instruct in the science of economy. Ah! reader you have guessed my name, have you? Yes, I am indeed Diamond Dyes, and intend to follow up the good work I so long ago commenced in Canada. Some poor competitors are endeavoring to displace me from my high position by stratagem and false representations; but the verdict everywhere is in my favor."

A Choir Room.

An addition is being made to St. John's church on the Fisguard street side, which will serve the purposes of a choir room. It will be finished very shortly, or in time for the surpliced choir. The new organ is expected to be delivered in Victoria Saturday, it will have been then sixteen days on the railway. This being so, the formal opening ceremony will take place in about three weeks.

THE R. C. CATHEDRAL CONTRACT

The Bishop and Contractor McDonald Released from Their Obligations.

The papers and documents constituting the mutual release of His Lordship Bishop Lemmens and Contractor McDonald in the R. C. Cathedral contract were signed last evening, and now the Bishop assumes sole management of the affairs of the new building. The Bishop assumes all the present outstanding liabilities to the amount of $6500. Out of this he will pay all demands, handing over any balance remaining to Mr. McDonald. The subcontractors may continue their work at the figures quoted according to the specifications. The amount paid out so far, irrespective of the $6500, is $39,000.

WHERE PARTING IS UNKNOWN.

Funeral of the Late Mr. Fred W. Robson This Afternoon—Impressive Ceremony.

The funeral of the late Frederick William Robson took place this afternoon from St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, where a full choral service of a very impressive character took place. The interior of the church was draped simply, but with chaste tastefulness. The pulpit was surmounted with mourning drapery, fringed with pure white apple and pear blossoms, which showed up with quiet, but pretty effect. The service was appropriate to the occasion, and produced considerable effect on not only the large number of mourners present, but the numerous congregation of friends and sympathisers. Rev. Mr. Macleod conducted the service, the most touching part of which was the anthem, by the choir, set to the air of the "Dead March in Saul."

The funeral procession was simplicity itself, the chief mourners being the bereaved father and mother, Hon. Mr. and Mrs. Robson. The casket was a picture of the floral wealth of this glad season, when all nature is bursting into life.

The pallbearers were Hon. J. H. Turner, Hon. Theodore Davie, Q.C., Dr. Pope, Mr. W. Finlayson, and Mr. Wm. Angus.

The choir opened the service with the consoling words:

> Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
> From which none ever wake to weep;
> A calm and undisturbed repose,
> Unbroken by the last of foes.

After the service the procession proceeded sadly to the last resting-place.

FRED. ARCHER PLAYS TO-NIGHT

At St. Andrew's—A Classic and Masterly Performance Given Last Night.

For the second time within a year Victorians have enjoyed a privilege extended to few cities in hearing Mr. Frederic Archer, "England's greatest organist", for Mr. Archer is, like all geniuses, very eccentric, and does not play everywhere when invited.

Owing to an unexpected circumstance, Mr. Archer found it necessary to stay over in Victoria to-day, and as the boat does not leave until four o'clock to-morrow morning he has consented to repeat his recital this evening, when the admission will be 25 cents instead of 50 cents.

When genius consents to delight ordinary music loving mortals, detailed or technical criticism is out of the question, besides which Mr. Archer has won such golden opinions that his very name is a charm in itself. Hence it may be taken for granted that last evening's performance was in the regions of musical perfection and genuine art. Mr. Archer's mastery of harmonising effects, his superb orchestration added to a soul living in and by music, make him truly the king of players of this king of instruments. The English speaking music world raves about their Archer just as the French do of their Batiste, and Archer wears his honors nobly. His performance last evening was one continual ascending scale of musical grandeur, ranging among all the great masters from the beautiful to the sublime. Among the former in the first part of the programme Roeckel's "Air du Dauphin" was perhaps the most charming, it being a musical scene of sunshine on a back ground of harmonizing effects. That great master Wagner, to a full appreciation of whose music the public is now quickly rising, was ably represented in "Tamhauser," in which the magician at the organ brought out all his weirdly grand effects.

Much has been written about Mr. Archer's wonderful technical skill, but he seems to make very light of it. He played a march in E flat from Wely, and another number following on the programme given below, which surprised as well as pleased the more discriminating portion of his large audience. His "quintette in A" from Mendelssohn was charmingly sweet, and although the audience rose when the organ seemed as if it would burst with the strains of God Save the Queen, no one was in a hurry to depart. The great man had repeatedly to bow his acknowledgments to the sincere applause which even the sacredness of the place could not restrain the audience from giving him.

Mr. Fenwick, who sang well a solo during the evening, deserves a vote of thanks from the musical public for his success in obtaining such a treat, and it is to be hoped the church will be crowded to the doors this evening, as it is only by the merest chance that Mr. Archer has found it necessary to stay over.

PROGRAMME.

PART I.

a Larghetto ..... Clarinet Quintett	Mozart
b Toccato in G	Dubois
Offertoire in D Minor	Batiste
a Allegro con Moto Quintett in A	Mendelssohn
Overture ..... Semiramide	Rossini
Solo ..... La Veglia	Gounod

Mr. Frank B Fenwick.

THOMAS DICKSON DROWNED.

One of the Crofter Fishermen Drowned in the Gulf—A Long Swim.

Last evening about 5:30, as three of the Crofter fishermen were rounding Clover Point on their way home from their work, their boat capsized in a squall, resulting in the death of one of their number, Thomas Dickson, a young man of 20. The weather was very rough and the strong current that runs off the point makes it a rather awkward place to navigate. The men, however, were used to rough weather, but it appears that the metal keel of their boat was dragging, which made her hard to handle. A gentleman who saw the accident from shore said that the boat was tacking when a heavy sea struck her and threw her over on her side. One of the men remained in the boat but the other two were thrown out. One of them managed to climb aboard again, the other striking out for shore. The latter was Dickson, a good swimmer, who, says an eye-witness, made a grand struggle to reach shore burdened as he was with his heavy clothing. Those on shore got ropes ready to throw to him when he got near enough and also threw pieces of lumber into the water with the hope that they would float to him. Before they could render any help the unfortunate young man became exhausted and sank, having battled with the waves to within 200 yards of the shore.

Another party of fishermen, who were passing, were hailed and took the two men and sloop into Ross Bay, where she was beached. A number of boats containing friends of the unfortunate man went out this morning and have been engaged all day assisting the provincial police to drag for the body.

Thomas Dickson was a native of Haddingtonshire, Scotland, where his parents reside, and from which place he came when he arrived here two years ago. He was employed for a while at the Albion Iron Works, and also drove Messrs. McLennan & McFeeley's cart until about three weeks ago, when he resumed his occupation as a fisherman. He was a great favorite among his companions, by whom he was recognized as one of the brightest young fishermen in the business. The search for the body will be continued.

PERSONAL.

Movements of Well Known People in Various Directions.

Mrs. M. Wolfe, of Nanaimo, is at the Driard.

G. H. Kennedy, of Wellington, is in the city.

L. Pither and wife returned from San Francisco last night.

T. H. Cotter and E. B. Tuoby left for San Francisco this morning.

T. R. Pearsin and C. G. Major, of Westminster are at the Oriental.

James Talbot-Power and Mrs. Power left for San Francisco this morning.

C. F. Jones, manager for Dun, Wiman & Co., went to Vancouver this morning.

James Punch, M.P.P., and J. S. Clute, inspector of customs, are in the city.

James McIntosh, manager of Shuswap Milling Company, Kamloops, is in town.

Rev. Father Mandart, the veteran priest of this diocese, is at Saanich for a short time.

J. H. Brownlee, district manager of the Equitable Assurance, has gone on a visit to Matoqui.

F. G. Richards, Jr., returned from a trip across the Sound by the City of Kingston last evening.

W. C. Ward, Capt. John Irving, H. Kessler and R. Collister returned from the Mainland by last night's boat.

Walter Gardner, of Enderby, is at the Oriental. In making the journey from home he rode six miles on the Shusway & Okanogan Railway.

Mrs. Thomas Hewitt and family arrived last night from Midland, Ont., to join Mr. Hewitt, who has been a resident of Victoria for about a year.

W. B. Abbott, nephew of Harry Abbott, superintendent of the C.P.R., is at the Driard. He is on a pleasure trip, but has made several investments in real estate during his stay.

Mr. T. Spence, ex-clerk of the Manitoba Legislature, who has been an interesting figure in the development of that Province, and who has witnessed the building up of Winnipeg from a mere hamlet to a popular city, is in town. He expects to reside in future in California.

Louis H. Jenns, who, since his entry into the commercial world, has been identified with that enterprising house, now the Vancouver Island Land & Investment company, has joined Mr. C. E. Mallette, late of the same firm, in Port Angelus, and is prepared to grow up with the City on the Straits, and share in its bright prospects.

Hon. Edward Blake and Mr. Geo. T. Blackstock arrived at Vancouver on Sunday morning. Their visit is in connection with the railway arbitration case, which will be resumed in the course of a few days. The arbitrators, Chancellor Boyd, T. C. Keefer and Mr. Gregory, have left Ottawa for the Coast. The Government counsel, Chris. Robinson, Q.C., and B. Osler, Q.C., are also en route to the West.

A WOMAN PRIVATE.

Romantic Account of a Female Soldier of the Revolutionary War.

Among the applications filed for membership in the Sons of the American Revolution at a recent meeting, says a letter from Washington, was one which contained the details of a veritable romance. Prof. Gilbert Thompson, who on his father's side is descended from a private revolutionary soldier, also claims descent from a private soldier on his mother's side, this soldier being Deborah Sampson Gannett. Herein lies the romance. In an affidavit made by her when she relinquished her invalid pension and received the benefit of the act of Congress passed March 18, 1808, she testified as follows:

"Deborah Gannett, of Sharon, county of Norfolk, district of Massachusetts, makes oath that she served as a private soldier under the name of Robert Shurtleff, in the war of the revolution for upward of two years, in the manner following, viz.: Enlisted in April, 1781, in the company commanded by Captain George Webb, in the Massachusetts regiment commanded by Colonel Sherpord, and afterward by Colonel Henry Jackson, and served until November, 1783, when she was honorably discharged in writing, which discharge is lost. She was at the capture of Cornwallis, was wounded at Tarrytown, and now receives a pension from the United States."

In January, 1792, she petitioned the Legislature of Massachusetts and stated that from zeal for the good of her country she was induced, and, by the name of Robert Shurtleff, did, on May 20, 1782, enlist as a soldier in the continental service for three years in the Fourth regiment; was mustered in on the 23d of the same month; was wounded and continued in the service until discharged by General Knox at West Point October 25, 1783. In accordance with this petition a resolution was passed January 29, 1792, signed by John Hancock, and she was paid thirty-four pounds, the note bearing interest from October 23, 1793.

The Female Review, published in 1797, gave her a very lengthy notice, and bore testimony to her heroic conduct and unblemished character.

MICROBES AT WAR.

A Wonderful Revolution of Modern Science.

The revelations of the microscope as to the existence of myriads of microbes in our bodies, as well as in all that we eat and drink, has caused timid people much anxious wonderment as to why these creatures are not more injurious and destructive than they actually are. Writing in the Speaker, Sir Henry Roscoe explains how it is that even the deadliest of these microbes may be found in the mouth or other parts of the body, and yet their host be perfectly healthy. The question is not one of the mere presence of these organisms in the body, but entirely one as to whether or not they find their way into the blood. If they do not all is well; if they do the most serious trouble follows.

Working with the microscope in M. Pasteur's laboratory in Paris, a Russian physician, M. Metschnikoff, has been able to discover the secret of the impotence of the microbe to penetrate into the blood. These most recent investigations show that there are certain cells contained in the blood of all the higher animals termed phagocytes, and identical with the well-known white blood corpuscles, which are endowed with the power of independent motion, and not only wander inside, but even make their way outside the tissue, and pursue, devour and digest any bacilli, whether poisonous or not, with which they come in contact. This is in reality the true battle of life which, although hitherto unknown and unobserved, is constantly going on within the body.

These phagocytes, which are the watchful guardians of the body, attack and annihilate the bacilli before they can penetrate the blood tissues. So long as they remain on guard the body is safe from attack, but should they, from any cause, relax their vigilance, then the invading army of parasites would pass into the system and destroy life either by the numerous mechanical lesions which it produces or by the poison which it secretes. This apparently independent life of the cell within the organism is one of the most marvelous revelations of modern science, as well as a remarkable illustration of the extreme nicety of the balance of nature.

A Very Large Lung.

A "chemical lung" is the latest thing proposed for the ventilation of tunnels. It was lately tested in London by fourteen scientists. A room 15x28 was kept for an hour at a temperature of 82 degrees, and the air was loaded with impurities. The men of science were now called upon to enter, and the air was made still more impure by burning sulphur and carbonic acid gas. Then the "chemical lung," or so called punkah, measuring 4x2.6, was set in motion. The temperature was soon reduced to 65 degrees, and the air freed from all impurities. Then fat was burned to test the machine for organic substances, and the "lung" was started up just in time to prevent the examining gentlemen from running out for fresh air. It is proposed to use the invention during the construction of the channel tunnel.

Boats in Siam.

The boat life of Siam includes almost all life. Business and pleasure, health and happiness, all center in the river or its branches. A boat and a paddle are almost as natural and indispensable possessions to Siamese as his arms or legs. He has no notion of traveling any distance except by boat; and the idea of living in a place inaccessible by water generally strikes him as absurd. Three weeks to come down stream with a full cargo; a week to dispose of it and indulge in the gayeties of the capital; four or five months to get back with the emptied boat, and the rest of the year for farm-work at home—such is the programme for many a Siamese family which lives as contentedly and placidly as the profoundest philosopher.

AN ADVENTURE ON THE GANGES

The Wrath of a Sleeper Whose Slumber Had Been Disturbed.

On sailing up the Ganges, says a writer in the Globe-Democrat, my boat happened to be moored by the side of a large budgerow (a Bengal pleasure boat) in which a somewhat choleric gentleman was, as I conceived, at rest; all his boatmen and servants, to the number, I dare say, of twenty-five or thirty, were sleeping, rolled in their white shawls, upon the roof of the apartment in which he was lying, which rose like a poop above the deck. It was a beautiful night, and in the neighborhood of Colgong, one of the most romantic parts of the river.

I was seated on the deck, although it was past midnight, enjoying the scene, when my contemplations were disturbed by an unusual splashing in the water. On turning in the direction of the noise I saw the unfortunate men leaping and tumbling into the river from the boat of my passionate neighbor, who was standing like a madman on the deck brandishing a stick over their heads. Never shall I forget the scene. The moon lit up his bald head, for he had thrown his nightcap at one of the people in a rage at not being able to reach him with his stick. The boatmen, who are always expert swimmers and did not seem to lose their presence of mind by the sudden transition, very soon reached the shore and gazed in astonishment, as I did myself, at the comedy in which they had taken such unexpected and conspicuous parts. I conceived some terrible offense must have been given to have called for such an uncompromising severity, for every one was driven from his berth. I was soon relieved from my suspense, however. The victor strutted two or three times over the deserted field, then turning toward the routed enemy, who seemed to rally on the banks, shook his stick at them and cried out in Hindostanee:

"I'll teach you to snore, you scoundrels!"

This ludicrous explanation of the whole mystery affected the crew as it did myself, and a loud laugh was the reply. So extravagant a punishment for as natural a fault they thought it absurd to think further about; and with the greatest good humor, not willing, however, to run the risk of a second fight, they kindled a fire and, squatting around it, smoked their pipes and laughed at the event till it was time to prepare for sailing.

It is not likely so touchy a traveler would give a favorable account of the people he traveled among, as he was always one of their most violent abusers. Poor man! The recollection of his fate almost rebukes me for having written the above anecdote. He was murdered a short time afterward on the banks of the river in his progress to Cawnpore.

A LIVING COFFIN.

An Incident That Marred the First Voyage of an Old Sailor Man.

"I made my first voyage in 1850," said the mate of the Argenta at St. John, N B., one day last summer, as the New York Sun reports the story. "I shipped in a brig bound from here to Glasgow with deals and rough spars. I was almost a man grown and had served a year in a sail loft, so that I could splice and cut and sew sails, but I shipped as ordinary seaman at ten shillings a month less than the other seamen. The second night out it came on to blow and we were rousted out to take in sail. Before the wind was passed I was in my bunk in the forecastle—a house on deck, like the Argenta's—sitting there, and on the other side was another man sitting there looking at me very hard. All at once he points his finger at me and says:

"'You murdered me wife!'

"I says: 'You're a liar! I never saw your wife.' I was pretty fresh for a boy, you know, but he took me all aback, unexpected like, just as when the customs-house officer yesterday asked me where Greenland was.

"Well, there he sat, staring at me very sober, and pretty soon he points his finger at me again and says, solemn like:

"'You murdered me wife.'

"'You're a bloomin' liar,' I says, again. 'I never saw your wife.'

"With that he begins telling he's going ashore to see a man he calls by name that used to live near St. John in those days, and turns to stowing his clothes in a bag, and we could see he was in the delirium. He worked in a terrible hurry, singing out to a man he said was outside in a dory waiting for him to hold fast a minute and he'd make haste, and just then comes the mate and bawls for all hands to reef topsails, as I was saying to you.

"That was my first night aloft, you know, and I never thought no more about his saying I'd murdered his wife till I got back to my bunk, after turning two reefs in the topsails. Then I saw he was gone.

"Next morning the second mate calls to me when I came on deck.

"'Do you want to see the coffin of the man what said you murdered his wife?' says he.

"'Yes, sir,' says I.

"'Come aft here and look over the rail, then,' says he. So I went and looked, and there was a shark about as big as that yawl swimming along under the counter, waiting for another of us."

In a Pound of Tea.

A man who argues that one pound of tea makes four hundred small or three hundred ordinary-sized cups states his case as follows: Tea testers ordinarily use a silver five-cent piece for weighing the exact quantity required for a cup. As there are about twenty-five five-cent pieces to an ounce, and as there are sixteen ounces to a pound, it follows that one pound of tea will actually make four hundred cups, according to the standard of strength ordinarily required by professional testers. The cups used for this purpose contain, however, one-fourth less than the average domestic teacups. It will, therefore, be seen that after making due allowance for the difference in the size of the cups the number will be very close to three hundred.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS

OH, MY BACK!

STOP IT NOW.

SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when a friend Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the DRAGON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days, I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.

AUCTION SALES.

VIEWFIELD

J. P. DAVIES & CO.

Have received instructions from THOMAS R. SMITH, ESQ., Assistant Commissioner, to sell by

PUBLIC AUCTION

ON

Thursday, May 14th,

AT 12 O'CLOCK NOON,

At Salesrooms, Wharf street, a number of plots of land located at

VIEWFIELD

The Puget Sound Company's land at

MACAULEY POINT

The finest and best location for residences adjacent to Victoria.

VIEWFIELD

forms the Western Shoreline of Victoria Harbor, commencing at C Battery Barracks, and takes in the whole of the water frontage to the South and West, to the adjoining Section. It has been subdivided into plots of land containing about one acre each. Much of the shore line is rocky, having many small bays with sandy beaches.

VIEWFIELD can be favorably compared to BEACON HILL, the pride of every Victorian. It has the same sandy soil, grassy lawns, rich bottom lands, with clumps of timber, but above all it has without compare the finest views of FUCA STRAITS, UP SOUND, the SNOW-CLAD OLYMPIC MOUNTAINS, exceeding even Beacon Hill in its view, in that it has a view of the City of Victoria.

VIEWFIELD is not subject to the prevailing western winds Albert Head acting as a windbreak.

The Puget Sound Land Company having completed the survey of VIEWFIELD, have under contract the thorough making, draining and gravelling of 60-foot streets.

They have rejected all offers of purchasers, deciding to first sell VIEWFIELD by PUBLIC AUCTION limiting the number of plots to be sold.

VIEWFIELD has the advantage of having the Esquimalt Waterworks system to supply it with the best and purest water on the coast, and under good pressure.

VIEWFIELD has facilities for rapid transit to Victoria or Esquimalt, by the cars of the National Electric car system.

VIEWFIELD is to-day the most desirable and will be the fashionable residence property outside the City of Victoria of which it is a suburb.

Full particulars of sale will accompany the lithographed maps now being prepared; ⅓ cash ⅓ one year, ⅓ two years; interest on deferred payments at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum. Deeds at purchasers expense.

SOUND STEVEDORING COMPANY.

A Company Which Will be of Important Interest to B. C. and Sound Shippers.

A combination of importance to all vessels loading or discharging cargo at points on Puget Sound, no less than to the firms interested in the new association, was created this week by the incorporation of the Puget Sound and British Columbia Stevedoring Company with a capital stock of $100,000 and headquarters at Port Townsend. The stock of the new company is not on the market, every share being taken by the incorporators.

Up to this time stevedoring has been done by independent men or companies at the several ports, and in consequence where a heavy plant and large force would be required in emergencies, at other times there would be seasons of unproductive idleness. To make up for losses through the unsteady demand for work, excessive charges were required often, and where extra dispatch was required the cost became correspondingly heavy. Under the new arrangement the company will have a resident manager at each port, and on advice from headquarters help can be furnished at the time and in the quantity required. The earnings of the company will be pooled, and at even reduced rates, a greater individual profit can be realized. Shippers and masters will be certain of prompt service, and where a vessel loads or discharges at two are more ports, only one contract and one settlement will be required.

The officers of the company are as follows: President, Capt. James Carroll; first vice-president, William L. McCabe; second vice-president, John P. Betts; secretary, Capt. John Barneson; treasurer, a bank of Port Townsend, not yet selected. There are five directors and local managers—Frank Chilcott, at Seattle and Port Blakeley; Capt. Betts, at Vancouver; W. L. McCabe, at Tacoma, and Capt. Barneson, at Port Townsend.

The rates established are in some instances a reduction on those formerly charged, and in no case are they higher. The sheet as issued is as follows:

For loading cargoes of lumber for South America, Australia, China or Europe, from $1.10 to $2 per 1000 feet, according to the size of timber and description of vessel; for loading wheat and flour, 35 cents per ton; salmon, 55 cents; for discharging tea, 35 cents per ton; ballast, 40 cents; cement, 45 cents; coal, pig iron and glass, 50 cents; shale, bricks and tiling, 65 cents, coke and railroad iron, 75 cents.

WHICH IS WHICH?

To the Editor: I bought a little tract to-day at Mr. Jameson's book store, styled "The Anglican Church before and after the Reformation," which appears bold and brief in its defence of Anglicanism. The author passes a hopeful compliment on the Presbyterians and in plain English tells the Methodists, Baptists, Independents and others they have no valid ministry! According to this we have been styling lay-men with the conventional "reverend," and with your permission I ask which is which?

Onus Probandi.

MORE QUESTIONS FOR THE COUNCIL.

To the Editor,—I have another question or two to supplement Victorine's list of queries in last night's paper, which might be answered at the same time. (1.) Why was there not an official sounding of the outer wharf taken before the city allowed Vancouver to charter Mr. Rithet's dredger to deepen the Narrows at Vancouver where the Abyssinia struck? (2.) Is it true that the Canadian Pacific Steamship management have made repeated applications for this long before the Empress of India left Liverpool, and failed to obtain it from the proper parties here? How is it that no active steps were taken by the city to have either of these complaints obviated? And lastly, where are the "educators of public opinion," the newspapers, that light has not been thrown on this subject, the matter thoroughly ventilated, and the parties blamable brought to terms? I see a great deal of nonsense and puffery written, but the point at issue is shirked, and that is that Victoria got, figuratively speaking, a direct slap in the face yesterday when a very ordinary ocean-going boat had to lay-to fully a mile off the outer wharf.

Another Victorian.

ENGINEERS AND CAPTAINS.

To the Editor,—I noticed in your last evening's edition an item which gives credit to the engineers of the steamer Empress of India; and as such items are very scarce in the papers, I must as a member of the profession of marine engineers, thank you. The average reporters, and for that matter nearly everybody from shore, are always ready to plaster a lot of praise on the captains and deck officers when some particularly quick trip has been made by a steamer, ignoring altogether the existence of the engineers, who actually are the ones who do the business. Under the decks the intricate and ponderous engines are out of sight, but it requires brains and skill to keep them going, and although the engineer is not seen much, and in consequence is seldom thought of by the passengers, an error of judgement or a lack of vigilance on his part would mean wreck and disaster. It takes a long time to break up old customs, and when sails were the motive power of ships, the captains, who were then sailors, deserved all the credit for a quick trip. In consequence of this the old system of adulation to him still obtains, but it is refreshing to see that a newspaper occasionally notices the fact that the engineer is the one who is a prime factor in the grand runs of the ocean racers. To-day the positions of engineer and master are becoming more equal, as the man of mechanics is becoming more recognized by the press as of some slight consequence on board a steamboat.

Marine Engineer.

Mothers!

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mothers' friend. 35 doses, 35 cents.

April showers may be the forerunner of May flowers and they are also certain to bring with them cold in the head, which if neglected, develops into catarrh, perhaps into consumption and death. Nasal Balm never fails to give instant relief, and will permanently cure the worst case of catarrh if faithfully used. Sold by all dealers.

Mr. Field Much Better.

New York, April 29.—David Dudley Field, the veteran jurist, is reported much better this morning. It is said that he was suffering from indigestion.

Dyspepsia

Intense Suffering for 8 years—Restored to Perfect Health.

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before 1878 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 162 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Sarsaparilla, as it had cured his wife of Hood's dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to tone up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

COAL

The New Vancouver Coal Mining & Land Co., L'd.

(FORMERLY THE VANCOUVER COAL CO.),

ARE THE LARGEST COAL PRODUCERS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

THE NANAIMO COAL (Used principally for Gas and Domestic Purposes).

THE SOUTH FIELD COAL (Steam Fuel).

THE NEW WELLINGTON COAL

(House and Steam Coal) are mined by this Company only.

THE "NANAIMO" COAL gives a large percentage of Gas, a high Illuminating Power, unequalled by any other Bituminous Gas Coal in the world, and a superior quality of Coke.

THE "SOUTH FIELD" COAL is now used by all the Leading Steamship Lines on the Pacific.

THE "NEW WELLINGTON" COAL, which was introduced early in the present year, has already become a favorite fuel for domestic purposes. It is a clean, hard coal, makes a bright and cheerful fire, and its lasting qualities make it the most economical fuel in the market.

The several Mines of the Company are connected with their Wharves at Nanaimo and Departure Bay, where ships of the largest tonnage are loaded at all states of the tide. Special dispatch is given to Mail and Ocean steamers.

NOW READY

BEFORE THE COUNCIL;

—OR—

Social Life in Victoria.

THE ABOVE WORK IS THE OUTCOME of the recent Moral Reform Movement which took place in the Capital City of British Columbia, and which played such an prominent part in the late Municipal Elections held there. The author discusses the various phases of the question, and has endeavored to deal with the subject in a manner that will be interesting and some practical benefit to every reader into whose hands his book may fall. The position taken by the Ministers of the Christian Churches in regard to the Municipal Election above referred to is also fully dealt with, and although the criticisms may seem severe to some, the author hopes the conclusions drawn and the desire he has shown to do a service, no matter how slight it may be, to the weak and fallen, will meet with the approval of all lovers of justice and humanity.

J. C. Hunter has been appointed master of the steamer Mexico, vice J. W. Gage, resigned to take charge of the steamer Al-Ki, which was commanded by J. C. Hunter.

Mr. B. Peele, Westminster, who was so severely injured at football some time ago, is progressing most favorably, and will soon be about again. His loss has been keenly felt on the football and lacrosse teams.

In the very favorable notice of the little opera of "Callie's Christmas" has received, mention should have been made of the kindness of Mr. Fletcher in lending the magnificent piano and organ used during the performance.

It may seem strange, but the chief characteristic of the British Columbia Commercial Journal is its Provincial broadness. It does not not make fish of one and flesh of another; it is neither all Vancouver and no Victoria, nor all Victoria and no Vancouver.

In spite of the dirty weather a few good catches of salmon have been made in the Fraser. The quality of the fish caught is improving very noticeably, and there is a general opinion that, in spite of its unpropitious opening, the season of 1891 will be a very good one.

Thomas Tubman, a carpenter of this city, has been taking a pilgrimage to his ancestral home in Goulbourn, Ont. On the 25th ult. he was married to Miss Alice Frizzell, of the same place, by Rev. A. H. Scott, of Perth. Mr. and Mrs. Tubman have returned to Victoria, where they will in future reside.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.
